

“IT’S A FACT”

NUMBER 9:

Want to hike to Minneapolis? There’s no need.

The River Ring’s 875-mile web of greenways being built here is the envy of the nation.

The parks, bikeways and walking trails will crisscross the region interconnecting two states, four rivers, and over 70 greenways with 2,600 square miles.

We have the elbow room to kick back and enjoy life.
